Experience Trentham Estate

the history

Almost half a century ago, the first vines were planted at Trentham Cliffs in far west New South Wales.

Jack Murphy instilled his knowledge of viticulture to the Murphy family, who established Trentham Estate.

The vineyard flourished in the rich red loam over limestone soils, nurtured by water from the magnificent Murray River.

the vineyard

The 60 hectares that make up Trentham Estate sit on a winding riverbank, and include trophy winning varieties such as Viognier, Petit Verdot, Chardonnay and Shiraz, in addition to new varieties Pinot Grigio, Moscato, Nebbiolo and others.

The grapes are picked and crushed at optimum ripeness to produce the perfect flavour.

Viticulturist Pat Murphy believes that good wine starts in the vineyard, and is continually striving to produce the best quality fruit.

the wines

The winemaking philosophy at Trentham Estate has always been to produce high quality varietal wines at an affordable price, with an emphasis on fruit flavour and palatability.

The Estate strives for balanced, food-friendly wines with restrained oak influence that lets the viticulturists' efforts shine through.

Winemaker Anthony Murphy has refined his art with over 30 years experience and Trentham's wines receiving more than 600 wine show medals over the years.
